Introduction

"Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ."

Ephesians 1:3

STOP IT! Stop giving place to the devil. Stop giving place to failure. Stop giving place to victim's mentality. Stop giving place to defeat. Stop allowing anything that is not within the confines of what Christ promised to work within and around you.

Stop allowing the things Christ has given you victory over to put you down. Stop allowing the devil to take what's rightfully given to you by Christ Jesus, purchased by His blood. Stop being a slave to the lies and deceptions of the devil. Stop letting him take advantage of you.

Colossians 1:13 declares,

"He has delivered us from the power of darkness and conveyed us into the kingdom of the Son of His love."

Do you understand this depth of victory God through Jesus Christ Our Lord has achieved for us? He will not deliver us. He may not deliver. He is not thinking of delivering us. He is not planning to deliver us.

He HAS delivered us. From what, you ask? From the power of darkness. He has delivered us from the influence of evil. Fear is evil. God has delivered us from it. Negativity, depression, lack, poverty, confusion, sicknesses, diseases, all are evil. God has delivered us from them all. It won't be a proper deliverance if God removed one thing and left another.

When the Son of God sets us free, we are really and unquestionably free (John 8:36 AMPC). You are not going to be trying to be free. You are already free. Free from all works of darkness.

When Jesus sets us free, we're really and unquestionably free.

This is a victory He has already achieved for us. It is a victory you already have. Imagine holding such triumph in your hands and being able to constantly walk in victory over the enemy of your soul.

That is the depth of victory we have received as believers in Christ Jesus.

Listen, the subject of faith is a matter that has been overly written on. The weight of materials available on this matter is so great you should think that too many believers will be walking in the triumph Christ has for them.

But the reverse is the case.

It seems the more we hear about faith, the more we are unable to fully walk in the fullness of faith that God wants us to. Jesus Himself said, “When the Son of man returns, will He find faith on earth?” (Luke 18:8). Will He find those who believe Him fully and completely on earth when He returns?

Will He find us believers taking charge and using the authority He has given us to the full maximum? Will He find us faithful to the truth, faithful to the cross, faithful to continue the good work of releasing people from the oppression of the devil and ministering abundant life to them?

These are the questions you and I will have to ponder upon as we consider our faith walk with God. I have realized that God does nothing without faith. Nothing great happens on earth without men of great faith pulling them down from heaven. God is never pleased when He doesn't see faith (Hebrews 11:6). Actually, faithlessness displeases God. Great men of old have called forth revivals because they stood by faith over the land.

When our land begins to hear the voice of men of faith again, I believe there will be revival in all the lands. We can begin to put the devil and his cohorts in their rightful places; right beneath our feet, exalting the kingdom of God in our lives and in the lives of men.

When we return to that path of faith again and stay there perpetually, I strongly believe that God will raise victory on this land again.

Faith doesn't affect God. Faith affects us. This is why God requires faith to be able to fully manifest His works here on earth. There is absolutely not going to be a pushing back of the hordes of hell without men standing by faith. Satanic yokes will never be broken over families, marriages, finances, and our lives if we are not standing by faith.

So many things will not change in our lives if we do not stand by faith over them. God wants to move in your life and mine. But He needs us to stand by faith. Because faith is among the three greatest weapons the believer uses to defeat the devil (1 Corinthians 13:13). Families, marriages, finances, lives, will never enjoy the victory and peace God wants for them without men standing in faith.

When we start to take advantage of the full force of faith in God, we start to experience the victory that God in Christ Jesus has made available for us.

Bondages are broken by faith. Deliverances are wrought by faith. If God will not find men who will stand by faith in their daily walk, His move will be stifled. God wants to do with us believers, His children, far much more than we could ever imagine (Ephesians 3:20). He wants to work out His power and His life through us to the world. Why? So His kingdom can be established on earth as it is in heaven.

But it has to be on the basis of the fact that we have faith in Him.

Hear what the Spirit says to us: “According to your faith, be it unto you” (Matthew 9:29).

We live in victory by faith.

These words, simple and yet profound, have never been so relevant as they are now. They are very simple words yet we easily pass them up. God says it is not a matter of what He can do for us, it is a matter of how much we believe He can do it. It is a matter of how much we are willing to release our faith.

Faith acts. Faith does not talk only. Faith believes and therefore does. Faith doesn't mentally assent to God's Word without acting upon it. If you believe it, you will do it. God is calling us to be doers, and not be hearers of His Words only, so we can take a delivery of all that He has for us in Christ Jesus.

If we can only believe Him for the impossible, He will move on our behalf. In our finances, marriages, families, businesses, even our nation.

Are you ready to charge up your faith? Are you ready to begin again to take advantage of all that is yours in Christ Jesus and start to put the devil again in his place – right beneath your feet?

I pray the following pages will bring you a revelation of truth that releases you into a faith walk that is constant and unwavering.

God bless you. Have a prevailing day.

Author's Note

This book is written in such a manner that it should be easy to read, digest, and practice. I have considered that there are too many books on the matter of faith. But if we would tell ourselves the truth, there are can't be too many books on the subject of faith.

Faith comes be hearing and hearing by the Word of God (Romans 10:17). The more we hear (or read) God's revealed messages to His own men, in different forms, the more our faith is strengthened. So consider this book another aid to stimulating and strengthening your faith in God.

As I earlier wrote, to make this book easy to read, digest, and practice, I kept each chapter of this book short and straight to the point. Although the book is not a devotional, I have included a section at the end of each chapter called "Today's Prevailing Message." The section has Meditation, Confess, and Further Reading options. These three will help you deepen your understanding as you read and study the book.

Again, this book is not a devotional. But if you want to charge yourself up daily as you leave your house, you can hit the day with a faith lesson from each chapter of the book.

Really, you don't have to rush to finish this book. Take your time. Read one chapter a day, focus on the Today's Prevailing Message section, and practice what you study there. You should be up to receiving the results of a faith walk in the next 30 days. (By the way, don't beat yourself up if you do miss a day. Dust yourself up and get right back in to reading and building your faith. Kids don't learn to walk in a day).

This book is not a one size fits all. It's not a "faith capsule" that would shoot up your faith, keeping it there permanently. As long as we're in this world, we will always have to grow our faith in God I am constantly looking for ways to grow my faith. But over the years, there has been no book strongest enough to do that than the Word of God. So I advise that you vigorously fill your mind with God's Word even as you read this book. The Word of God, taught to you by the Holy Spirit, will do very much to transform you.

If you are desperate to receive certain due victory from God, God is desperate to give it to you. But He needs you to come into faith so that He can hand it over to you. I trust the Lord that this book should get you there, if you follow the lessons within the pages.

I commend you to the Lord and to His grace today and always. God bless you.

Chapter One

What Is Faith?

“NOW FAITH is the assurance (the confirmation, the title deed) of the things [we] hope for, being the proof of things [we] do not see and the conviction of their reality [faith perceiving as real fact what is not revealed to the senses].”

Hebrews 11:1 AMP

It is important to begin from here. If you do not understand the definition of faith – what God says faith is – you will not know how to operate in it. Faith is like a house. You cannot build a house without a foundation. The foundation of everything we will receive from God is faith. Faith is the foundation upon which we build our relationship with God.

Faith is the proof you have that you have what you claim to have. Faith is our title deed. What is a title deed? A title deed is the deed that confirms your ownership of a thing.

Imagine I own a house and as I was about to get into the house, there's this stranger who is riling and railing about knocking me out of the house. My house.

I would simply not respond to him.

Rather, I would walk up to that porch and kick him off. Why? Because I know this is my house. I have the title deed to that house. That title deed makes me so confident and unafraid that I am sure he couldn't threaten me out of my house.

Faith is our title deed. It is the guarantee that we have from God what we say we have. And faith is always based upon the Word of God. In fact, the definition of faith is your complete believe in the Word of God. The rate of your success is actually determined by your believe in the Word of God.

Faith is our title deed. The guarantee that we have from God what we say we have.

If you believe the Word of God, whatever God says, then you have faith. As long as you believe the Word of God and are living by it, it doesn't matter how much the devil is attacking your finances, your business, your family, your marriage, you know God's Word is true and you can kick him out.

Faith asks for no other evidence apart from the Word of God.

Faith is completely contrary to our five senses. The Bible says, "Faith perceiving as real fact what is not revealed to the senses." Your sense of smell, seeing, touch, feeling, cannot perceive it. Your body isn't feeling to well. You can tell it's going to be sick. But faith says,

"By His [Jesus] stripes, I am healed. It doesn't matter what my body is saying to me." How do you believe you have what you ask from God, even when the circumstances stays the same? Faith in God's Word, that you receive what you ask when you pray (Mark 11:24).

Faith is acting based on God's Word. When you act based on God's Word, you have acted on faith.

Let's look at John 2:5. This is the wedding at Cana of Galilee. Jesus, His disciples, and Mary His mother were there. The wine had been exhausted. But Mary knew that all things were possible with Jesus. Even manufacturing wine from nowhere.

What did she do? She knew exactly what pushed Jesus' button. She had been His mother all through thirty years of His life. She knew He was God's Son and having witnessed too many miracles with Him in the house (I should think so), she knew He could make things happen now. So, she told the servants.

"Do whatever He says."

Mary knew the trick to pushing Jesus' power out. She knew the only way God could release His power. She knew it wasn't a matter of what Jesus said to her earlier but a matter of whether she could be smart enough to push His button.

Faith is "whatever He says to you, do it." You exercise faith when you do the Word of God. It is no more a matter of how you feel any more than it is a matter of what you do.

Most people think they must have great faith before they can do God's Word or receive from God. Actually, no. Faith simply acts upon God's Word. Faith asks for no other evidence.

Faith is doing whatever God says in His Word.

Jesus told the disciples, "If you have faith like a mustard seed..." A mustard seed is a very tiny seed that is almost infinitesimal to the eyes. It is so tiny you may not be able to see it. But why would Jesus equate faith to this? Why should such tiny faith move a mountain?

The reason is simple: if you believe, you will act. It is not a matter of how great your faith is or how small. Much more, it is a matter of your response to the Word of God. You will act wealthy if you believe "God will supply your need according to His riches in glory through Christ Jesus", even though you have nothing in your bank account.

If you believe, you will act.

Faith is, "Whatever He says to you, do it." Do what God says, regardless of what you think or how you feel, and you would acted in faith. No matter whether your emotions or the physical circumstances line up with the Word of God. Faith simply acts on the Word of God.

If you believe God, if you believe His Word, you will do what it says. The evidence that you believe is revealed in what you do.

We behave what we believe. So whatever you're behaving right now is a result of what you believe.

Chapter Two

God Always Wants To Give You!

“Do not fear, little flock, for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom.”

Luke 12:32

No father in the world wants to give to us more than God, our heavenly Father, wants to. Imagine a Father Who isn't just desperate to give His children, He has prepared all His children need and He only needs them to draw them down by faith in Him.

No one spoke extensively about prayer more than Jesus did. In so many places in the gospel, Jesus enjoined us to pray. Why? Because God is constantly listening to His children, to give to them.

In Matthew 7:7-11, Jesus says to us, “Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened. Or what man is there among you who, if his son asks for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will he give him a serpent? If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask Him!"

In Luke 18:1, He says again to us, "Then He spoke a parable to them, that men always ought to pray and not lose heart."

John 14:13-14, 16:23-24, also talks about asking God.

John 14:13-14, "And whatever you ask in My name, that I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If you ask anything in My name, I will do it."

God always want to give you. He is always waiting for you to ask

John 16:23-24, "And in that day you will ask Me nothing. Most assuredly, I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in My name He will give you. Until now you have asked nothing in My name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full."

Why does the Bible emphasize praying to God?

Because God always want to give to you.

You may have asked for things in prayer and it seems the answers have not come. First, you must realise and understand it deeply that God always want to give to you.

The Bible declares, "Before you call, I will answer. While you're yet speaking, I will hear" (Isaiah 65:24).

God is not a lying Father. He is not a Father Who says one thing and means the other. If He says He always hears you before you call and answers you while you are yet speaking, you should believe it. You should come boldly before His throne, holding up this Word in your heart, knowing fully well that when you ask Him, He immediately answers.

You may say, "But I don't feel like I have what I have received what I asked." There's never anywhere in the Bible where we are told to feel we have received what we have asked before we get it. We are never told to feel. We are told to believe God heard us and we will do for us what we ask, if we asked according to His will – which is His Word.

Listen to me, if your son came to you to ask you, "Dad, our teacher told us to buy pencil in school."

If you are a good father (and I'm certain you are), you will not kick that son away. You will not tell him to shut up and walk away. You will not keep doing whatever you're doing and act like you didn't hear him.

Because you love him, you will respond to him. You may not have the money at that moment. But the love you have for him, especially when you know he isn't lying to you, will compel you to want to do for him.

See, when we love people we want to do for them. "For God so love the world that He gave..." (John 3:16). If God loves us so much like this, it is without doubt that that love will always compel Him to always want to give to us.

God is not stingy. God is not a Father Who wants you to beg and cry and whine before He gives you just one thing. God is very generous. He wants to always give you everything you need, so that in giving you, your joy may be full (John 16:24).

Imagine a Father Who is always very happy that He is giving you; who is always happy that you received something from Him. That is God, your Father.

Don't listen to the lies of the devil. Don't believe the deception of your flesh. God hears your prayer and longs to do for you, if you are

When we love, we give. God gives us because He loves us.

His child and are following Him. You should not give up on asking Him for what you need. Ask Him and He will give you. He will never lie.

Charge up your faith today. Ask God for your need. And thank Him because He will do it.

Chapter Three

The Only Limit Is Yourself

"Now to Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us."

Ephesians 3:20

Read through the Gospels. One of the most shocking discoveries you will make is that men receive only according to their faith. No way has heaven delivered great victory to any man without that man pulling it down by faith.

Too many times in the Gospels, Jesus told men, "According to your faith, be it unto you."

When He was going to heal the two blind men, He told them, "According to your faith, be it unto you" (Matthew 9:29).

When He would heal the woman with the issue, He told her, "Your faith has made you whole" (Mark 5:34).

When He wanted to heal the paralytic man, scriptures, “When Jesus saw their faith...” (Matthew 9:2).

He constantly rebuked His disciples for their lack of faith (Matthew 8:26).

Faith is a prerequisite to receiving from God. You can never receive from God without faith. God gives His best to the man who has faith and lives by faith. In fact, I dare say that the man who has access to all that God has is the man who lives by faith and faith alone.

Jesus was this kind of man. He lived completely and absolutely by faith. And the Scriptures declare this about Him, “The Father loves the Son and has given all things into His hands.” (John 3:35).

Do you think God gave Him all things because He was the Son?

God does nothing for us except by faith, because faith is what pleases God.

Yes. And in Him, we equally have access to all things because Jesus Christ Himself said it. “As my Father loved me, I have also loved you” (John 15:9). The Father loved Him so much that He put all things in His hands. If He loves us the same way the Father loved Him, then it means He has equally committed all things into our hands.

But we gain access to all these things – all our rights, privileges and responsibilities – by faith. Faith is the cheque book for cashing all that is yours in God. If you show up in God’s “bank” without faith, that cheque bounces. But God does not want this to keep happening to you. He wants you to have all that He has bequeathed to you in Christ Jesus. You can have it all by faith.

God wants to give you all He has prepared for you. You are not limited by anything except your faith. How much you can exercise your faith determines how much you will receive from God. In fact, permit me to tell you that you have all have now according to your faith.

If you believe God for little, God cannot force much on you. God doesn't force anything upon us. He told Abraham, "As far as your eyes can see, that will I give unto you." If your faith sees farther than where you are now, God will honour your faith and give you what your faith.

God honours our faith because faith honours God. If a man could believe God for his nation and God could give it to him, you can believe God for your finances, the souls of your children, your marriage, your business, your health, and you will have it.

It's never a matter how much God can do for you. It's always a matter of the limit you have placed on your own faith. Take away that limit by looking into God's Word and claiming for yourself what God has prepared for you.

The Word of God is God's letter to you that contains everything He has promised. How much you open it and draw from it will determine how much of God's promises you will walk in.

Take away the limit today. As far as your faith can believe, God wants to give to you. You can't pity the resources of God because His resources are inexhaustible. Nothing you could ever ask would affect God's resources. He has more than abundant for all His children, and still more.

Kick the limit off your faith today. As far as your eyes can see, that's what God wants to give to you.

How far can your eyes see?

The Word of God is God's letter to you, containing everything He has promised.

Chapter Four

Seek No Other Evidence

"Then Jesus said to him, "Unless you people see signs and wonders, you will by no means believe."

John 4:48

Can I tell you the truth? If you're still seeking evidence before you can have faith, you have no faith at all. If you're still seeking evidence before you can start to walk in the victory that is available to you in Christ Jesus, you have no faith.

Faith seeks no other evidence except the evidence of the Word of God. Once faith sees what God's Word says, it stands by it and remains unshaking through it. Faith holds on only to the Word of God and seeks no other evidence.

Let's read the Amplified translation of Hebrews 11:1, "NOW FAITH is the assurance (the confirmation, the title deed) of the things

[we] hope for, being the proof of things [we] do not see and the conviction of their reality [faith perceiving as real fact what is not revealed to the senses]."

Did you catch that? Faith perceives as real fact what is not revealed to the senses. Even when it is not real, even when physically I do not have it, even when I cannot taste it, smell it, see it, feel it, I believe it is real.

I believe that heaven is real. I believe that hell is real. I believe that God is real. Even though I cannot taste, see, feel, or smell them. Therefore, I believe that God's Word is real also. That I am healed when He says I am. That I can do all things through Christ Who gives me the strength.

*We live by faith
because we know God's Word is true.*

I have looked at my life, where I'm coming from and where I am at the moment. The transition that has happened, the changes, the transformation in character, habits, and behavior can only be linked to the Word of God.

There are giant situations that seemed immovable before me that, as soon as I trusted myself to God, I got my victory. I can't say that I've perfected this faith walk. But each time I have had faith in God fully, I have seen great victory come my way time and time again.

Do you want to know and be utterly convinced that God loves you? Read it in His Word (Ephesians 2:4 AMPC). There's no other way to be secure in His love than to believe that He loves you because His Word says so. When the situation comes at you and wants you to deny God's love, you can look up God's Word and tell yourself, "I love Him because He first loved me. Therefore, I believe His love for me. Perfect love cast out fear" (1 John 4:16-18).

Seek no other evidence. Faith is the evidence you have that you have all that God says you have. Faith is evidence you have to prove that God is with you always even until the end of the age (Matthew 28:20). Faith is the evidence you have that all things will work together for your good (Romans 8:28).

If you can stay with this evidence, you can rest assured that you're standing right within your victory. Why is this so?

Because faith is the very victory that overcomes the world (1 John 5:4). The world including all circumstances in your life. No matter the circumstances.

Walk in the victory God has for you.

MEDITATE: "Jesus put him off: "Unless you people are dazzled by a miracle, you refuse to believe." John 4:48 (MSG)

CONFESS: "I do not live by what I see, I do not live by what I feel, I live only by the Word of God. I set the Lord before me today, as it is written, He is at my right hand; I shall never be moved. The Lord is a wall of fire roundabout, therefore none of my steps shall slide today. I live, move, and act in victory. I am a victor because greater is He that is in me than he that is in the world."

Daily Inspiration To Boost Your Faith

The mind is a powerful tool, in the hands of God and in the hands of the devil. A mind that is liberated and under the control of God can be sure to experience such great triumph and victorious living that puts the life through to fulfilling its destiny. The Bible already makes it clear: as a man thinks in his heart, so is he (Proverbs 23:7). The way you engage your mind will determine the level of victory you will enjoy in your life. If your mind is sound, you can make sound decisions. If your mind is not sound, it becomes confused, and you find it difficult to make sound decisions. Sound decisions will help you to build sound life. This book is in a good look into how the application of sound wisdom can launch you into your life's destiny.
